Here is the whole rule...

"Unless otherwise specified for special events, jackets and closed toed, closed heel shoes for men and similarly suitable attire for women are required while in the Dining Room on Saturday evenings. Casual attire is permitted at all other times and places. Casual attire means collared shirts, neat slacks, dress shorts for gentlemen and similarly suitable attire for women. Cut-offs, midriff tanks, men's sleeveless tee shirts, bare feet and blue denim are prohibited in all areas at all times. After 6 pm, men's shirts must be tucked in except those with a straight hem designed to be worn untucked. Bathing suits, when properly covered, and presentable tee shirts free of offensive slogans or words are permitted in outdoor areas until 6 pm. Tennis whites are prohibited in the Dining Room and are permitted elsewhere only until 9 pm."

MENS SLEEVELESS SHIRTS NOT PERMITTED
